Location

Edinburgh, a UNESCO world heritage city, and Scotland's capital city is located approximately 400 miles north of London and 45 miles east of Glasgow. It is a key political, legal and judicial centre and is the second largest financial centre in the UK. The city has a population of approximately 525,000 and a regional catchment of around 1.6 million people. Edinburgh has a diverse economy with more FTSE 100 companies located there than any other city in the UK, outside of London.

The property is located within the highly desirable Stockbridge area of Edinburgh, renowned for its independent retailers, artisan cafés, creative occupiers and numerous bars and restaurants. Situated in the heart of Stockbridge, St Stephen Street is a short walk from Edinburgh city centre and Raeburn Place.

There is a vibrant mix of residential and commercial occupiers, making it one of the most sought-after parades in the city. Nearby occupiers include Starbucks, The Bailie, Purslane and Cullertons.

Description

The subjects comprise a Class 1A retail unit arranged over the upper ground floor of a traditional four storey and basement mid terraced tenement. The property benefits from a prominent display frontage and is currently fitted out as a beauty salon.

The property is arranged to provide treatment rooms, staff kitchen and WC. Heating is by electric panel radiators.

ACCOMMODATION

The subjects have been measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measuring Practice (6th Edition) and we estimate the Net Internal Area to be as follows:

Upper Ground Floor: 45.71 SQ M (492 SQFT)

Tenure

The property is held on a heritable title (Scottish equivalent of English freehold).

EPC
